If the customer is not entirely satisfied with their delivery they are obliged to contact the office so that Brittons are given the chance to rectify any complaints.

Compliance with this requirement shall be a condition precedent to any claim for short quantity, quality of service and or damage to the F.I.&E. If short delivery does take place, the customer undertakes not to reject the goods but accept the goods delivered as a part performance of the contract.

The company undertakes to use its best endeavours to dispatch the goods on a promised delivery date and time, but does not guarantee to do so. Time of delivery shall not be of the essence of the contract unless expressly so stipulated in writing. If delivery is delayed by strikes, lockouts, fire, accidents, defective materials, delay in receipt of raw materials, or bought in components or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the company a reasonable extension of time for delivery shall be granted and the customer shall pay such reasonable extra charges as shall have been occasioned by the delay. The company shall have no responsibility for the actions of any agent or servant of any company who may be employed at the function venue at the same time. The customer shall be responsible to take goods straight away any delay in receiving goods, that give cause to parking fines shall be redeemed from the customer

If the customer fails to take delivery on the agreed delivery date the company shall be entitled to dispose of the said items of the contract and to charge the customer the reasonable costs of doing so and to tender its account for the purchase price plus additional expenses incurred by the company.

Cost Variation

All quotations and estimates issued by the company are, unless otherwise stated, based on current cost of production (materials, hours & wages) and are subject to amendment on or after acceptance to meet any recognised rise or fall in such cost e.g. specialised food and equipment items can fluctuate in cost.

All descriptions, dimensions, particulars, weights and specifications submitted by the company are deemed to be approximate only, as are details in any brochure, catalogue, price listing or advertisement, and do not form any part of the contract. If the company has not received acceptance within 30 days of the date of quotation, the quotation shall be deemed to have lapsed.

Government taxes or levies

Any variation to prices quoted, as a result of government taxes and levies will be for the customer's account.

Equipment Damage or loss Responsibility

All equipment left at the function / venue shall be the responsibility of the customer, equipment should be left in a secure environment where only Brittons and the customer shall have sole access.

Any loss or damages shall be the responsibility of the customer, and shall be invoiced upon report.

Terms of payment

Unless an account has been set up with the company the customer shall pay strictly net 7 days prior to function in which deliveries are made and shall pay interest on overdue accounts of 4 percent above Bank of England base rate accruing daily. If the customer shall fail to pay promptly, he shall lose the benefit of any previously agreed discount. All credit accounts authorised and agreed in writing by the company shall become payable net within 14 days from the date of invoice or as agreed in writing with a company representative.

The ownership of materials delivered by the company shall only be transferred to the customer when the customer has met all that is owing to the company on whatsoever grounds. The risk of accidental deterioration or destruction shall pass on delivery and the customer shall insure against such risk. The provision of a purchase order number is the customer's responsibility and should not delay or prevent payment of submitted invoices.

The customer shall pay all accounts in full and not exercise any rights of set-off or counter claim against such invoice submitted.

If the customer shall commit any breach of these conditions or if any distress or execution or any other legal process shall be levied upon any of the assets of the customer or if the customer shall in the opinion of the company be unable to pay for goods or suspends payment of its debts or makes arrangements with its creditors or being a company has the receiver appointed or passes any resolution to be wound up (other than voluntarily for the purposes of re-construction) or being a person shall commit any acts of bankruptcy or have a bankruptcy petition presented against him then in any such event the company shall, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies it might have, be at liberty to forthwith by notice in writing to the customer.

- 1 Cancel all orders and contracts or any part thereof remaining unfulfilled between the company and the customer for the delivery of goods.
- 2 Make due and payable to the company all sums which otherwise would not yet have become due and payable from the customer.
- 3 Have access either for its agents or itself to the premises of the customer for the protection, removal realisation of any goods at any time in which the property shall not have passed from the company to the customer under these conditions
